SPRINGFIELD, VIRGINIA
VOLUME FOURTEEN

I FOUND MYSELF WONDERING
WHO AM I
WHAT AM I
TO WHOM DOES IT MATTER?

WAS I ALONE
DID OTHERS
ALSO QUESTION THEIR BEING THEIR GROWTH
THEIR DESTINY

AS I SENSED
THE LIFE AROUND ME
ITS DEMANDS AND REWARDS
ITS EXCITEMENT AND DRAMA
ITS COLOR AND CREATIVITY
EXPERIENCE GRADUALLY REPLACED INTROSPECTION

I REMEMBERED
MY FRESHMAN YEAR
THE FEELING OF NOT BELONGING
OF NOT CARING
OF BEING AN OUTSIDER

AS TIME PASSED
I BECAME AWARE OF A NEED
TO BREAK AWAY FROM SELF COMPLACENCY
TO BELONG AND SHARE
TO INVOLVE MYSELF WITH OTHERS
AND IN DOING SO FOUND MYSELF

I KNOW WHERE I'VE BEEN WHERE I AM NOW
BUT WHERE AND TO WHAT AM I GOING

SENIORS VISIT ANNAPOLIS

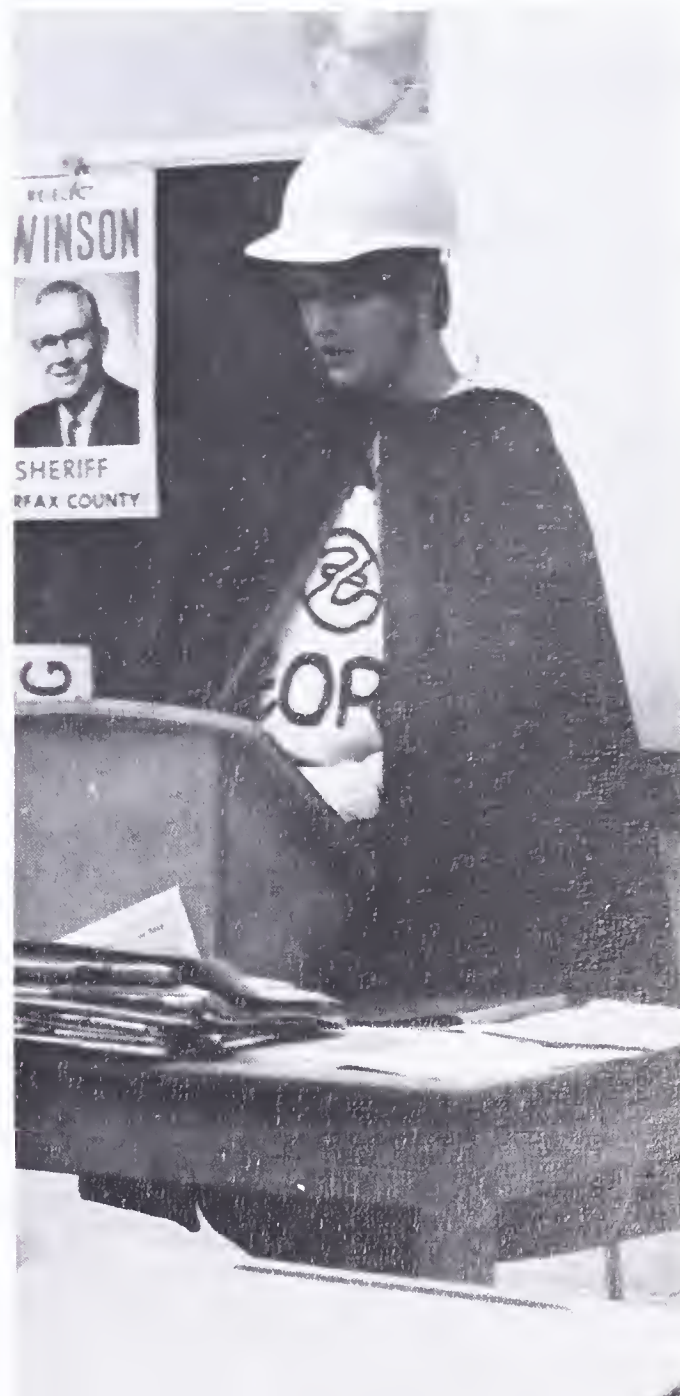

DUKE MEETS NAVY

Early on the rainy Saturday morning of October 23, 110 Seniors gathered in front of the school. What could bring so many people out of bed at 8:00 a.m. on such a miserable day? Could this mass of people possibly have a common goal?

The members of the Class of '72 were descending on the Naval Academy at Annapolis to view Navy's homecoming game against the Duke Blue Devils. Neither the rain nor the one hour wait to leave the parking lot after the exciting 15-14 Midshipmen victory could put a damper on the fun and spirit of the Senior Class.

SENIOR
DRESS-UP DAY

SENIORS PRESENT

"DON'T DRINK THE WATER"

The Senior Class presentation of Don't Drink the Water involved hard work from a talented cast and a very industrious stage crew. The play centers around a family from Newark, New Jersey, who accidentally wander into a restricted area in a little Communist country and becomes stranded at the American Embassy. The husband, played by Brian Allen, is a caterer who is constantly arguing with his nagging wife, played by Ann Liski. Their charming, offbeat Greenwich Village daughter, portrayed by Barbara Steele, falls in love with the bungling Klutzy Ambassador's son, played by Mark Shubatt. Their zany experiences range from encounters with an insane priest, who has a hang up on magic tricks, played by Clyde Sherrod, to a near escape from a time bomb. Thus the madcap comedy, under the able direction of Robert Simmons, proved to be the biggest success in Lee's History.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

MR. WILLIAM E. JACKSON, JR., PRINCIPAL

The changing scene—traditions obsolete—a time of dramatic conflict between old and new; the "establishment" and youth. And education? Changing, too. New methods and better techniques instituted to meet the needs of a changing and demanding society.

Lee has changed but, fortunately, still retains its traditions. Lee is a school where a basic scholastic foundation is offered to its young people; where team spirit still lives; and where discipline and moral codes are still honored.

Each of us can be proud to be a part of Lee High School. Changing — yes! Yet the same, where it matters most.

William E. Jackson, Jr.

There'll come a time
When I'll ask myself
Where has my life gone?
What have I done with my talents?

Then it'll be too late
To change my life;
It'll be my history,
Not my chance.

When the time comes
I'll be ready.
I'll be able to say
I made the right decision.

Because I'm aware.
Because I have my chance.
Because I'm alive.
Because I have confidence
In me.

STUDENT LIFE

I OFTEN WONDER
WHO AND WHAT I AM
DO OTHERS ALSO QUESTION
THEIR EXISTENCE?
DO I ALONE PONDER
MY BEING, MY GROWTH?
AM I ALONE?

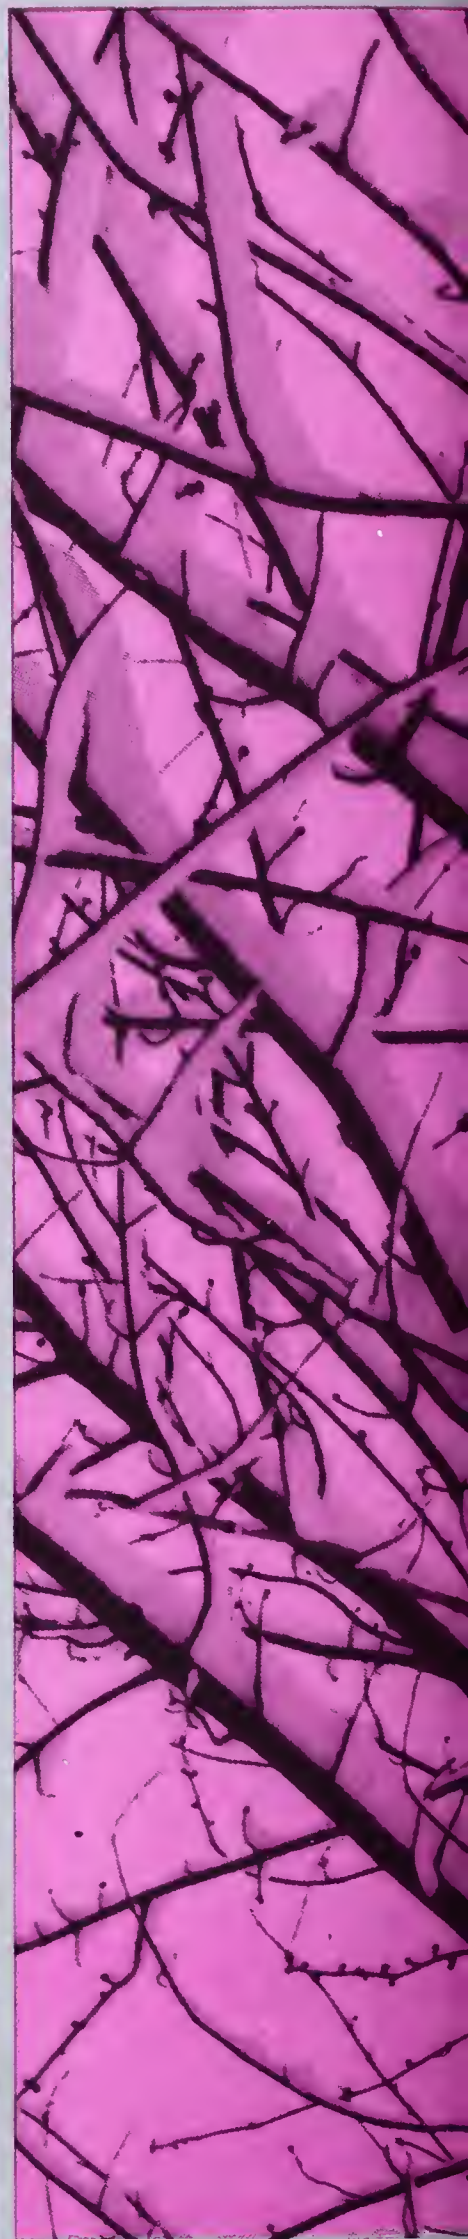

THE LIFE
AROUND ME SEEMS
HOW CAN I NOT SHARE
IN ITS DREAM
I AM A PART OF ALL ABOUT ME
I CANNOT REMAIN AN OUTSIDER

I MUST BREAK
AWAY FROM MYSELF
I MUST INVOLVE
MYSELF WITH OTHERS

I MUST BELONG
I NEED TO SHARE
AND EXPERIENCE ALL
ONLY IN DOING SO WILL I FIND MYSELF

A NEW QUEEN REIGNS

HOMECOMING 1971

"The Spirit of '71" was the 1971 Homecoming theme. To show spirit, each class decorated its hall and competed in the buying of spirit links. The traditional Bonfire and Follies were held on Thursday night. Everyone wore blue and gold on Friday to show support for the Lancer team. The Lancers played Fort Hunt Friday evening. Half time activities included class float competition and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Although the Lancers lost the game, everyone was in good spirits Saturday night for the Homecoming Dance. Music was provided by "Liberation". The highlight of the dance was the presentation of the Queen and her court.

THE GILLESPIE FAMILY
6432 Brandon Ave. Springfield, Phone 451-9730

CAKE 'N ICE CREAM CAKE

Beautifully decorated — your choice of any of our delectable 31 flavors — crowned with a layer of luscious cake. Then frosted with ice cream in any other flavor you wish. (Please order this at least a day or two ahead.)

PARTY SCOOPS

What could be more colorful — or more delicious — than generous scoops of our 31 ice creams, sherbets and ices. And in souffle cups, all ready to serve.

FROZEN FRUIT PUNCH

It's delicious! Our own secret blend of tangy tropical juices including pineapple, papaya, guava and raspberry. You'll find it's so good the grownups will want it, too. Better have enough on hand!

CLOWN CONES

What a great idea! Pick any flavors. We'll turn them into circus clowns to tame your ice-cream-eating tigers. (And by the way, dry ice packing is available on request.)

Virginia Business Institute

OBJECTIVES

Prepare men and women for careers that are socially significant, useful, and ethical. Create proper and acceptable behavior patterns and attitudes which best serve the individual, industry, and the community.

Foster an atmosphere which encourages each student to achieve all of which he is capable. Provide opportunities for the understanding and appreciation of the highest ideals and standards in commerce, in industry, and in society as a whole.

Develop an intense faith in democracy, an understanding of members of other groups, and a sincere belief in the dignity of man. Promote a respect for institutions and cultural values which are an integral part of our national heritage.

THE 1972 SHIELD STAFF . . .

. . . wishes to acknowledge the people who have made our book a success: Kris Sigler, for coming through in times of need; Mrs. Sigler, for all the trips to Fort Belvoir; Mr. Simmons, for his poetic talents; Mrs. Ryan, for letting us run in and out of the guidance office; Mr. Ellis, our representative from Hunter Publishing Company, for helping us put the book together; and extra special thanks to our sponsor, Mrs. Glenda Burgess.

Ann Horvath
Editor-In-Chief
Linda Kaplan
Assistant Editor

We, the Shield Staff, would like to dedicate the 1972 Shield to "Mrs. Burgie" whose time and effort has made this book possible and whose patience and understanding has been most appreciated.
